

The Cairo Messenger, Friday, July 18, 1971.

Mrs. Annie Lee Herring Passes on July 8, 1971 - Mrs. Annie Lee McNair Herring passed away in the Morgan Memorial Hospital in Madison, Ga., on July 8, 1971, after a short illness.

Funeral services were held July 10, 1971, at the Calvary Methodist Church with Rev. David Dubose officiating. Active pallbearers were B. W., Larry, Conrad, David and Jerry McNair, Billy and Joe Herring and Charles Butler. Interment was in the Piedmont Cemetery.

Mrs. Herring was born on July 19, 1900 in Grady County to the late Bryan (sic) H. and Mildred O'Neal McNair. She was married to Mr. Pierce Lloyd Herring, Sr., who passed away on February 12, 1963. She has been a lifetime resident of this area.

Surviving the deceased are one son, Pierce Lloyd Herring, Jr., of Smyrna, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. Lewis Thompson of Bostwick, Ga., and Mrs. Dale Stingery of Austin, Texas; two brothers, W. O. McNair of Macon, Ga., and Joe McNair of Calvary and seven grandchildren.

Clark Funeral Home of Cairo was in charge of arrangements.